

HUMAN TRAFFICKING INTERNSHIP

-Are you passionate about fighting human trafficking?

-Are you interested in serving in ministry or the nonprofit sector?

-Do you love the beach and the majestic Coastal Redwoods? (Ok, that last one wasn't fair! Because seriously who doesn't love that?)

Arukah Project, a faith based non-profit that works to restore, renew and rebuild the lives of survivors of sex-trafficking in Santa Cruz County could be a perfect opportunity to explore and develop your passions and refine your calling!

We are looking for a committed and enthusiastic person that would like to spend a year in Santa Cruz working alongside our team to expand and develop the work of combatting human trafficking. Our multifaceted organization provides extensive and varied opportunities to develop skills and understanding of building a successful, sustainable and effective organization. We do work with:

- Prevention education and awareness
- Social Services, Government, Law Enforcement
- Businesses and Community Stakeholders
- Churches
- Events and Fundraising
- All aspects of non profit administration

An ideal applicant will meet the following qualifications:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Have their own vehicle and able to volunteer 16 hours per week with our organization
- Be self supporting through work or fundraising
  - Housing is available (if needed) for $500 per month
  - Ample job prospects for those that want to work part time - in fact we encourage it!

- Hours are somewhat flexible
- Have a passion or calling to fight human trafficking
- Be open and willing to learn new things and serve where needed (joyfully adaptable)
- Be able to pass a background check and provide references

HOW TO APPLY: Please complete the following and email to: heather.goode@arukahproject.org
